If the Assessor determines that the evidence provided as well as the additional evidence which could be gathered is not sufficient or that the evidence does not align with the course requirements the Assessor will discuss and assist in the development of an appropriate training plan.

If the Assessor determines that the evidence provided and subsequent additional evidence, the participant will go onto Step 2 to gain assessment of each individual unit.

ATTENDANCE

You will be provided with a course schedule on your first day (induction/orientation) that will clearly identify the days and related units of competence you must attend to achieve the qualification(s) you have enrolled for. A typical day will be timetabled to commence at 8.30am and conclude at 4.36pm, including a morning and afternoon break of 20 minutes and a lunch break of 30 minutes.

You MUST attend ALL scheduled training and assessment and work unless:

- you are sick and have a medical certificate signed by a recognised Australian medical practitioner
- other extenuating or compassionate circumstance that requires you to be absent from training e.g. Jury Duty, death or serious illness of a close family member (you will need to provide evidence of these circumstances) you have been granted recognition for the unit.

Note: that annual leave is not an acceptable reason for absence from off-job training.

You will also need to have evidence for your absence such as a sick certificate from a Doctor. Email and SMS messages about absence are not acceptable.

If you are absent without notification, MTA RTO Administration will contact you. Where an unsatisfactory reason or Administration is unable to contact you disciplinary action may follow.

This provides both:

- a record of your attendance

Be on time so you won't be marked absent. If you are late, and depending on how late you arrive, the trainer/assessor will determine if you can attend or whether you need to liaise with the RTO Manager to re-schedule the remainder of the session with another group.

Should your attendance and punctuality be of an unsatisfactory level the Student Support Officer will liaise with you. Should this continue an intervention strategy will be negotiated with you. Where attendance and punctuality continue to be poor you may be expelled from the course.
